

COMMANDING OFFICER

Commander Jack B. Mayberry is originally from Ohio, but was raised in Santa Barbara, California. A graduate of California State University at Los Angeles, he was commissioned in September 1970 via Officer Candidate School in Newport, Rhode Island.

Previous sea duty tours have been: Communications Officer in USS NEW ORLEANS (LPH 11), Weapons Officer in USS WHIPPLE (FF 1062), Combat Systems Officer on the Staff of Commander Destroyer Squadron Twenty Five, and Executive Officer in USS KINKAID (DD 965). He has had tours ashore at the Navy Recruiting District Minneapolis, as the Aide and Flag Lieutenant to the Commander Naval Surface Force, U.S. Pacific Fleet, on the CNO staff as an analyst in the Program Resource Appraisal Division, and as the Administrative Assistant to the Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

Commander Mayberry's awards include the Meritorious Service Commendation Medal, the Navy Commendation Medal with two gold stars in lieu of second and third awards, and various unit and campaign awards. Commander Mayberry is married to the former Sharon Marie Boone of Santa Barbara, California. They have two children, Laura, and Shelle-Marie. They reside in Bonita, California.

Commander
Jack B. Mayberry

